

2008 - 2009

Early U. S. History

Rm 131

1. Materials

- 3 ring binder, agenda, paper, pens, pencils, color pencils
- printer paper (listed on your supply sheet) should be turned in to your HR teacher
- book cover (texts are expected to remain in good condition)

2. Curriculum - Early Migration through 1877

- Technology is an important research component of our history curriculum.
- Writing assignments should be expected.
- In compliance with DoDea guidelines, you will be required to read a minimum of 1 novel per quarter, with titles to be announced at a later date. (in conjunction with literature guidelines)

3. Homework

- Homework does not have to be written to be classified as homework. Going over notes or re-reading material is an understood daily assignment.
- Homework includes the novel you are required to read each quarter.

4. Absences

- Time away does not exempt you from an assignment. It is the student's responsibility to find out what was missed. If an assignment is made prior to a student taking planned leave, the assignment is due on the day the student leaves or on the day he / she returns.
- If on emergency leave or sick, students generally have the same number of days absent to make up the work.

5. Correspondence

- My e-mail addresses are available in your child's folder. If students are absent, feel free to email questions, concerns, or assignments to me.
- Parents should feel free to contact me through e-mail, with a note in the student planner, or to call me at school.
- Students are required to have their agenda in their possession at all times while at school.
