

Computer Applications - Grades 6 & 7

Computer Applications is designed to assist students in applying a variety of computer technology and its application to their daily lives. In addition to information literacy, the areas of technology introduced may include word processing, spreadsheet, database, Internet, e-communication, graphics, presentation and publications applications, and using digital and scanning equipment.