

Rice Table

We have a table that is filled with uncooked rice. It is a great place for children to learn to play together. We scoop and pour and dig. When we spill rice onto the floor we get to use a hand broom and dust pan to clean it up. We have new toys in it each month to bury and hide or to empty and fill.

