Taton-Saunders Named Antilles Elementary School Principal

PEACHTREE CITY, Ga. – Dr. Elaine Beraza, Director, Department of Defense (DoD) Domestic Dependent Elementary and Secondary Schools (DDESS) and Department of Defense Dependents Schools, Cuba, (DoDDS-Cuba) announced today that Jacque Taton-Saunders has been named the new principal of Antilles Elementary School, Fort Buchanan, Puerto Rico.

Taton-Saunders is currently assistant principal of the school, a position she has held for the past four years. “Jacque’s transition into the new position will be seamless since she is an administrator there now,” Beraza said. “She brings valuable DoDEA (Department of Defense Education Activity) experience and knowledge with her as she assumes the instructional leadership of Antilles Elementary School.”

A native of Colorado, Taton-Saunders earned her doctorate in education from the University of Northern Colorado. She has taught with DoDEA in Germany and Okinawa where her teaching experience has included elementary classroom, music, reading recovery and computers. She’s been an administrator in Guam, Puerto Rico and Germany.

Taton-Saunders and her husband, Richard Saunders, who is an instructional systems specialist with DDESS, have four grown children who all graduated from DoDEA schools.
