

January 5, 2009

Dear Families,

This week we will spell compound words. There are eight spelling words. Please choose one of the following:

Write a story that uses all eight spelling words. These would be good words to use in a story about a family trip or a story about a party. You may turn the story in as late as Friday morning. Just let me know, please.

Or

Write complete sentences using the spelling words.

The spelling words are: into, oatmeal, birthday, daytime, peanut, sailboat, railroad, tryout.

The spelling test will be Friday. Welcome back!