

The Preschool Press

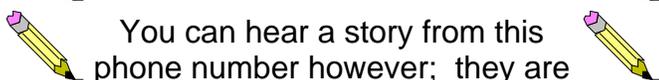

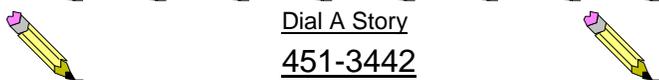

Date: December 10, 2008

A Peek at the Week

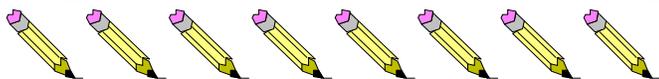

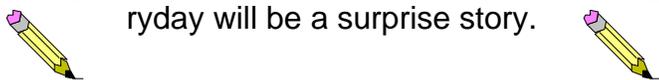

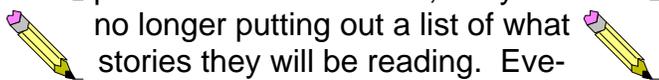

The gingerbread man has come to preschool. Hope we can catch that quick little cookie. The children will have the opportunity to make gingerbread men in the art center and to "bake" them in home living. There is a yummy smell coming from the sensory and science table? Is the gingerbread man in there? That's not the only place children will get to smell gingerbread- we will be slipping it into play dough! On Friday, December 19th we will have our Holiday Celebration. The children will be able to enjoy some special activities added to the centers that day. We will be face painting that day so if you do not want your child's face painted, please let us know. Hmm... check the side of the newsletter for our secret gingerbread bath salt recipe.

Dial A Story
451-3442

You can hear a story from this phone number however; they are no longer putting out a list of what stories they will be reading. Every day will be a surprise story.

Ginger bread Bath Salts

1tsp. ground allspice

1tsp ground ginger

1 tsp ground cloves

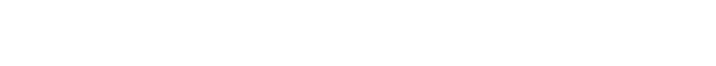

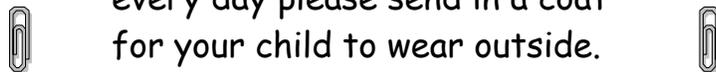

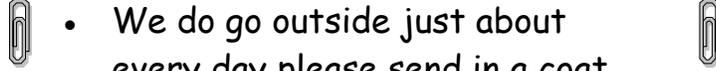

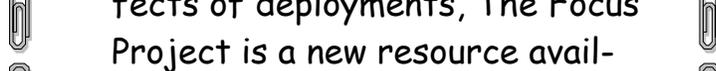

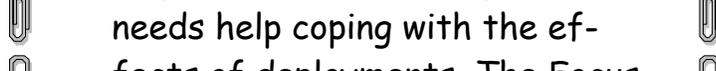

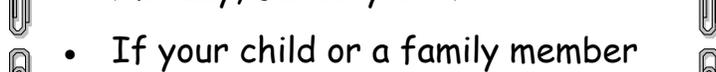

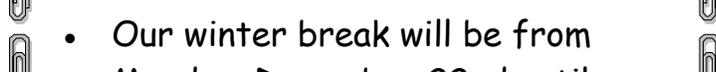

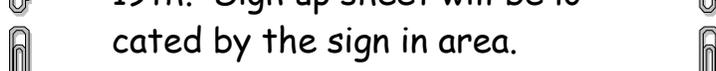

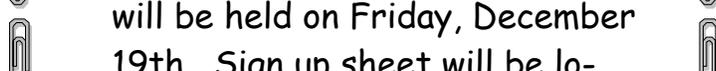

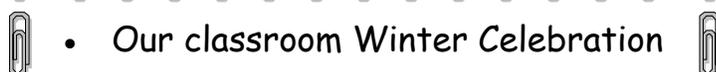

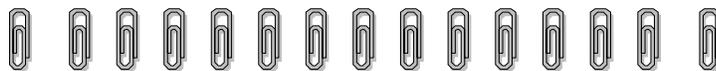

1 tsp ground cinnamon

1lb. Box of baking soda

Reminders

- Our classroom Winter Celebration will be held on Friday, December 19th. Sign up sheet will be located by the sign in area.
- Our winter break will be from Monday, December 22nd until Monday, January 5th.
- If your child or a family member needs help coping with the effects of deployments, The Focus Project is a new resource available to you.
- We do go outside just about every day please send in a coat for your child to wear outside.