A Peek at the Week

Last week we found out who in each class could hold the most nuts in their hands. We used a balance scale to complete this activity. The children also enjoyed our nature walk. Check out our posters in the hall to see all the things that we collected. You can try a nature walk at home as a family too! Today in cooking we made a trail mix. Thanks for those who donated items to our activity. The rest of this week we are finishing up our fall unit. Then, for the next couple of weeks before Thanksgiving we will be talking about food, feasts and family traditions! Please talk to your child about some of your family's special traditions during this time of year
