

Fifth Grade Language Arts/Reading Pacing Guide SY 2007/2008

Grading Period	Reading	Writing	Grammar	Study Skills
First	Sequencing Setting Characterization Cause & Effect Mood Summarizing Context Clues Multiple Meaning Words	Writing Process Personal Narratives Descriptive Writing  All writing is taught using the 6 +1 Trait Writing Method.	Capitalization Punctuation Grammar Usage Sentence Structure Parts of Speech	Reference Skills Indexes Dictionary Skills Sort/Organize Info. Charts Graphs/Tables
Second	Plot Steps in a Process Paraphrasing Structural Clues: Suffixes Contractions Main Idea Details	Continue Writing Process: Persuasive Writing Newspaper Article Compare/Contrast Research Report  All writing is taught using the 6+1 Writing Method.	Capitalization Punctuation Grammar Usage Sentence Structure Parts of Speech	Atlas Schedules Ongoing Reference Skills Newspapers Internet Research
Third	Fact/Opinion Drawing Conclusions Making Inferences Compare Contrast Author/Purpose Point of View	Continue Writing Process Poetry Writing Expository Research Report  All writing is taught using the 6+1 Writing Method.	Capitalization Punctuation Grammar Usage Sentence Structure Parts of Speech	Ongoing Reference Skills Thesaurus Timelines Internet Research
Fourth	Make, Confirm, Revise Predictions Theme Analogies	Continue Writing Process Short Story Memoirs  All writing is taught using the 6+1 Writing Method.	Capitalization Punctuation Grammar Usage Sentence Structure Parts of Speech	Diagrams Ongoing Reference Skills Almanac

**The 6+1 Traits model of writing is comprised of the following categories: Ideas, Organization, Voice, Word Choice, Sentence Fluency, Conventions, and Presentation. Students become better writers in all genres when using this model of instruction and assessment.